IT cures all Manner of Wounds, if curable; the moſt inveterate Ulcers and Fiſtulas, by injecting into the Canals and Sinews of Ulcers and Fiſtulas, afore-mentioned. In Wounds, you cure by dipping a Pledget of Lint in the Balſam, and bind up the Wound, uniting the Lips of the Wound as Conveniency offers, renewing once a Day, till cured.

It ſcatters all Manner of Swellings, that are fit to be ſcattered; but Abceſs, and ſuch under that Denomination, are often called Biles, muſt come to Supperation when it is drawn, and the corrupted Matter taken off, it quickly heals.

For a Cold, attended with violent Coughing, Inflamation of the Glands, Hoarſeneſs, and exceſſive Force for Reſpiration, Pains in the Breaſt, and even the ſtrongeſt Pleuratick Symptoms, it gives immediate Eaſe, by taking in the Morning faſting, a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, with two or three Tea Spoonfuls of Honey, or for Want of Honey, Sugar.

For violent Falls whereby the internal Parts may be hurt, and a Rexis of the Veſſels, that often bring on a Bleeding at Mouth, Noſe, &c. it ſtops the Blood, and ſcatters the congulated Blood, and makes it more fluid to paſs away.

In Sprains of the Limbs, Contractions of the Ligaments, Tendons, by anointing with the Balſam before a Fire, it ſupples and relaxes them to their natural Functions.

Pains in the Joints in the upper and lower Limbs, by the ſame Method, it takes away by a few Applications.

Even in the Gout and Rheumatiſm it gives immediate Eaſe; but I don't ſay it is an infalliable Cure.

N. B. It cures Conſumptions that are not of long ſtanding, if the Patient is within the Age of Forty Years, by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, Morning and Night, drinking half a Pint of warm freſh Broth after each Doſe, during the Term of Forty Days.

☞ It has cured a Number of People in New-York, whoſe Names are affixed to the Directions, and it has alſo cured ſeveral Perſons here of violent Coughs, &c. which were of a long ſtanding.

LONDON, MAY 2.

THE following clauſes from an Act concerning Outlawry, paſſed in the Reign of King Henry VIII. ſeem to be extremely applicable to the caſe of a popular Gentleman now depending:

1. Though a man be outlawed, yet if any Error or Diſcontinuance be in the ſuit of the proceſs, the party ſhall have advantage thereof, and for ſuch cauſe the Outlawry ſhall be reverſed and annulled. 2. If the party defendant be over the ſea, at the time of the Outlawry pronounced, that is a good cauſe for reverſal. 3. Proclamation of the Outlawry ſhall be made in five different Counties.

We are informed, that the perſons appointed to conduct Mr. Wilkes to priſon, expreſs great ſatisfaction at his candid and polite behaviour towards them, and their gratitude for the pains he took in preſerving them from the fury of the populace.

The begging box belonging to the debtors of the King's Bench Priſon, is now inſcribed with the words "Wilkes and Liberty, and No. 45." On account of which, and of Mr. Wilkes's being confined there, ſcarce a friend of Liberty that can afford it, paſſes by without putting ſomething into it, for the relief of the poor confined debtors, ſo that they have fared more comfortably ſince his being confined there, than for a long time before.——"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

We hear his Grace the Duke of BEAUFORT is re-elected Grand Maſter of the moſt Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and accepted MASONS, and will this day (being the annual Grand Feaſt of the Society) attend at Merchant Taylors Hall in Thread-needle-ſtreet, in order to be inſtalled accordingly. And it is expected ſeveral of the Nobility, and a numerous company of the Brethren, will accompany his Grace to dinner there at two o'clock.

Two tranſport ſhips are taken up in the river, on government contract, to carry over artillery and ſtores to Gibaltar and Port Mahon.

Alexander Gordon, Eſq; of Glaſgow, in North Briton, is appointed Agent for all the forces ſtationed at Nova Scotia, &c. in America.

MAY 3. By a letter received by the mails which arrived on Sunday, we are informed, that the King of Denmark propoſes very ſoon to ſet out on his tour to viſit Europe; and that he intends to ſtay in Holland four weeks, in England eight, in Paris ſix weeks, and then ſet out for Italy, where he will ſtay as long as circumſtances may retard or accelerate his ſtay. Some think the Queen will accompany him to England, but this is not poſitively ſaid.

Extract of a letter from Dover, dated April 29.

"This day the King's or eighth regiment of foot, embarked on board the tranſports in our harbour for Quebec, in preſence of many hundreds of ſpectators, who expreſſed great pleaſure to ſee them quit their native country with ſo much chearfulneſs, and ſatisfaction. We expect they will ſail from this place to-morrow. Mr. Latban, Surgeon of this regiment, has entered into partnerſhip with Mr. Sutton, and intends introducing his method of inoculation in that part of North America."

The Belleiſle man of war, arrived at Plymouth from Gibraltar, laſt from Cork, made the following Voyages in ſeven weeks, viz. from Plymouth to Cork, where ſhe took in troops, and landed them at Gibraltar, took in troops at Gibraltar and landed them at Cork.

MAY 4. We are informed that their Royal Highneſſes the Dukes of Glouceſter and Cumberland will ſoon be appointed ſtaff Officers on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment.

It is confidently ſaid that a certain Noble Lord has received a great Number of Letters, addreſſed to him, of a moſt daring and alarming nature.

Some letters from Leghorn, mention, that a report is current there of a Treaty being actually on the carpet, between the Senate of Genoa and the Court of Verſailles, for ceding the whole right of the republic in the Iſland of Corſica to the French King.

A letter from Madrid, dated April 3, ſays, "The King hath ſent orders to his Miniſter at Rome to act in concert with thoſe of France and Naples in the repreſentations to be made to the Pope for the maintenance of the rights of the Sovereign Princes of the Houſe of Bourbon."

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, April 1.

"It is ſaid, that the Marquis de Grimaldi, Miniſter and Secretary of State in the department of foreign affairs, hath declared to Sir James Grey, the Ambaſſador from England, that on the arrival of ſome new elucidations which the Court expects from the Philippine Iſlands, relative to the Manilla ranſom, they will regulate definitively with that of London the difference ariſen between them relative to that object."

They write from Paris, of the 11th of laſt month, that the embarkation of the troops for Corſica is poſtponed, becauſe that the Engliſh Ambaſſador has notified the motives that the King his Maſter has to oppoſe it.

Letters from Hanover, of April 15, ſay, "According to our laſt advices from London, the King our Sovereign has no intention of viſiting this year his Electoral States. The Count de la Lippe, Generaliſſimo of the King of Portugal's troops arrived the 8th inſtant at Buckeburg, from Liſbon."

We are aſſured that ſome time laſt month a ſet of new inſtruments fairly executed by Meſſrs. Miller and Maſtmore, called the Conductor and Containing Splints, invented by Mr. Wathen, ſurgeon, in Devonſhire-ſquare, for the cure of fractured legs, was ſent by order of the Hon. Court of Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, to each of their ſettlements in the Eaſt Indies.

From Dublin, we hear, that James Dennis, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Serjeants at Law, is to be appointed one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, in the room of the late Hon. Baron Mountney, deceaſed, and he will be ſucceeded as ſecond Serjeant at Law, by Godfrey Lill, Eſq; who is alſo to be ſucceeded as third Serjeant at Law, by Redmond Norris, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Council at Law, in Ireland.

Letters from Venice, dated April the 8th, mention, to have received the confirmation of the loſt of the ſhip St. Carlo, man of war, of 90 guns, on the coaſt of Peſaro, going from Corfu to Venice, on board of which, were ſeven Noblemen and ſeveral women and children, in all, about 700 ſouls, and not one perſon ſaved.

A certain tradeſman, in the pariſh of St. Giles's in the Fields, laſt Sunday had his child chriſtened by the name of John Wilkes, in honour to that noble aſſerter and defender of Britiſh liberty.

By a Gentleman arrived in town from Glouceſterſhire, we are informed, that ſo great are the diſtreſſes of the poorer ſort of inhabitants in that county, that they are obliged to eat barley bread, though it is computed that there is wheat ſufficient in the hands of the farmers and engroſſers to ſupply double the number of inhabitants in the ſaid county 'till after the harveſt.

MAY 5. Yeſterday was a Levee at St. James's, and afterwards there was a Privy Council, at which all the Great Officers of State aſſiſted.

Tueſday Mr. Wilkes entertained ſeveral of his friends at a turtle feaſt at the King's Bench priſon, where a great number of loyal healths were drank, and the company broke up about nine at night.

An old, ſteady, and unbiaſſed friend of Mr. Wilkes has in his poſſeſſion the coat and waiſtcoat buttons which prevented the fatal blow aimed againſt him by his antagoniſt, in a caſe, on the back of which is the following inſcription: "Theſe two ſimple, yet invaluable buttons, under Providence, preſerved the life of my beloved and honeſt friend JOHN WILKES, in a duel fought with Mr. Martin on the 16th of November, 1763; where true courage and humanity diſtinguiſhed him in a manner ſcarcely known to former ages. This invincible bravery, as well in the Field, as the glorious aſſertion of the LIBERTY of his fellow-ſubjects, will deliver him down an unparallelled example of public virtue to all future generations."

Yeſterday Mr. Cotes delivered to Anthony Bacon, and John Durand, Eſqrs, Members for the Town of Aylesbury, letters ſigned by all the principal Electors, recommending, in the ſtrongeſt manner, the caſe of Mr. Wilkes to their care and protection.

From the additional volumes of Swift's Works, lately publiſhed, we learn, that that Gentleman was concerned in a violent Torry-paper, which ended at No. 45, all the following being unworthy of notice.

The following Anecdote may be depended upon. A young Gentleman attended two young Ladies, to a certain Chapel at the Eaſt end of the Town, which is very much frequented by the Nobility and Gentry; while there, he obſerved the eldeſt of the young Ladies behaviour during the whole ſervice to be remarkably light and inconſiſtent with the place and occaſion, as that of the other was exemplary, and expreſſed the greateſt ſenſibility and devotion. It had ſo great an effect on the young Gentleman, that tho' he had long before paid his addreſſes to the former, he, from that inſtant, conceived ſuch a diſguſt at her conduct, and preference of her ſiſter's, that we are aſſured he ſoon after declared his eſteem for her, and that they were actually married not many days ſince. A ſtriking caution to the female ſex, and a proof how readily men of ſenſe and diſcernment muſt incline to the ſide of real ſenſibility and merit.

Letters from India, brought by the Hector Indiaman, mention, that the Dutch had lately eſtabliſhed a new ſettlement and factory, on the iſland of Borneo, in the Aſiatick ocean, from which they expected great advantages.

They write from Madrid, that ſundry complaints have lately beeen tranſmitted home by his Catholick Majeſty's Governors in America, againſt the illicit practices of the French frequenting the Iſles of Triangles, who, for near three years paſt, have carried on a clandeſtine trade with the adjacent Spaniſh Colonies, highly prejudicial to the intereſt of the King and the Havanna Company.

The Pearl, Liverpool, Otter and Swan men of war are ſailed from Plymouth for Newfoundland.

The 27th ult. died at Cally, Kircudbright-ſhire, in Scotland, the Hon. Lieut. General James Stewart, ſon of James late Earl of Galloway, and Col. of the 37th regiment of foot.

Advices from Poland ſay, that the Confederates have obliged the Jews in that Kingdom to pay the Capitation Tax impoſed on them, into the Confederates Cheſt, which has furniſhed the latter with Money, to carry on their preſent Deſigns againſt the King and Diet of Poland.

On the 7th ult. a fire broke out in the village of Brailly, two leagues and a half from Amiens in France; when the whole village, which conſiſted of about 55 houſes, was (except four or five) entirely conſumed in leſs than two hours.

The following is an addreſs of Mr. Wilkes's, to the gentlemen, clergy, and freeholders of the county of Middleſex.

GENTLEMEN,

In ſupport of the liberties of this country, againſt the arbitrary rule of miniſters, I was before committed to the tower, and am now ſentenced to this priſon. Steadineſs with, I hope, ſtrength of mind, do not however leave me; for the ſame conſolation follows me here, the conſciouſneſs of innocence, of having done my duty, and exerted all my poor abilities, not unſucceſsfully, for this nation. I can ſubmit to far greater ſufferings with chearfulneſs; becauſe I for that my countrymen reap the happy fruits of my labours and cruel proſecutions, by the repeated deciſions of our ſovereign courts of juſtice in favour of liberty, I therefore bear up with fortitude; and even glory that I am called to ſuffer in this cauſe; becauſe I continue to find the nobleſt reward, the applauſe of my native country, of this great, free and ſpirited people.

I chiefly regret, gentlemen, that this confinement deprives me of the honour of thanking you in perſon, according to my promiſe; and at preſent takes from me, in a great degree, the power of being uſeful to you.—The will, however, to do every ſervice to my conſtituents, remains in its full force; and, when my ſufferings have a period, that the firſt day I regain my liberty ſhall reſtore a life of zeal in the cauſe and intereſt of the county of Middleſex.

In this priſon, in any other, in every place, my ruling paſſion will be the love of England and our free conſtitution: to thoſe objects I will make every ſacrifice. Under all the oppreſſions, which miniſterial rage and revenge can invent, my ſteady purpoſe is to concert with you, and other true friends of this country, the moſt probable means of rooting out the remains of arbitrary power, and ſtar-chamber inquiſition; and of improving, as well as ſecuring the generous plans of freedom, which were the boaſt of our anceſtors, and, I truſt, will remain the moſt nobleſt inheritance of our poſterity, the only genuine characteriſtick of Engliſhmen. I have the honour to be, with affection and regard, gentlemen,

Your obliged, and faithful humble Servant,

JOHN WILKES.

King's-Bench priſon, Thurſday, May 5, 1768.

MAY 6. We hear that his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Monaco, will ſoon ſet out in order to embark for Ireland, in order to take a view of that kingdom.

Extract of a letter from Conſtantinople, March 10.

"The Grand Seignor being recovered of his late indiſpoſition, hath given on this occaſion ſome ſignal marks of his clemency and charity, in ſetting at libery many inſolvent debtors, who were impriſoned, and whoſe debts amounted to 250,000 crowns, and in reducing this ſum to 25 per cent. which he has taken upon him to pay out of his treaſury. Moreover his Highneſs hath recalled all exiles, except thoſe convicted of treaſon, or guilty of having plotted againſt his Miniſters."

They write from Quebec, that a mine of rich ſulphur, equal to the beſt imported from the Levant, had lately been diſcovered near Trois Rivieres, which was expected to turn out greatly to the advantage of thoſe concerned.

We hear from Plymouth, that the guardſhips are ordered to be augmented to the middle complement of able ſeamen.

The city of Bath is become ſo populous, and there is ſo much encouragement given to the public diverſions of that place, that we hear a gentleman, well known in the muſical world, has contracted with the Patentee of the Theatre Royal there, to ſupply an excellent orcheſtra for the four nights a week on which there are plays, provided he is allowed the uſe of the houſe for balls and concerts on the other two; and it is ſaid, that, during the ſummer, the Theatre will be fitted up in a very elegant manner, after the plan of the Opera-houſe, for that purpoſe.

MAY 7. An Order has been iſſued, by Sovereign Authority, at Stockholm, to renew and confirm all former Orders againſt the Migration of the Natives of Sweeden to foreign Countries. The Commanding Officers on the Frontiers, and in the Maritime Places of that Kingdom, are enjoined to take Care, that no Workman in the Mines or Forges, nor any Servant whatever, be ſuffered to embark on board any Ship clandeſtinely; and the Maſter of every Ship, before he puts to Sea, is to appear, with all his Crew, and Paſſengers, before the College of Trade.

They write from Guernſey, that upwards of 100 Sail of French Fiſhing Veſſels have, this Seaſon, been fitted out, in the ſeveral Ports of that Kingdom, for Newfoundland.

Mr. B——, a Gentleman of Family and great Expectations, now confined in the King's-Bench for a large Debt, was in poſſeſſion of the moſt ſpacious and pleaſant Apartments in that Priſon; but the Moment Mr. Wilkes arrived there, Mr. B—— very politely inſiſted upon reſigning them to the Patriot, and would abſolutely take no Refuſal.

When the Men were drawing Mr. Wilkes to Spitalfields, inſtead of the King's-Bench Priſon, he jocoſely aſked the Perſon who was with him, what he ſuppoſed the Fare might be? "becauſe, (ſays he) if there ſhould be any Diſpute, I apprehend it cannot be ſettled by the Book of Rates, nor the Commiſſioners, as their Appointments, Directions, or Authority, at preſent can only extend to Coaches drawn by Horſes!"

It was obſervable at a celebrated Aſſembly laſt Week, that Miſs Wilkes not only danced in the ſame Row with the R—— F——, but that the young Lady's Partner for the whole Night, was a North-Briton.

Unleſs prevented by the utmoſt Diligence, ſeveral Perſons are now upon the Eve of going to America, and carrying over Numbers of Hoſiers Frames, and able Workmen in that Branch of Trade, to eſtabliſh a Manufactory in that Part of the World.

According to the Liſts publiſhed, there appear to be one hundred and ſeventy-two Members choſen to ſerve in this Parliament, that were not in the laſt.

MAY 9. A Perſon went on Tueſday laſt to ſee an acquaintance who has long been confined in the King's-Bench Priſon, when finding him in better Spirits than uſual, he aſked him the occaſion, "Why, ſays he, we have got Wilkes here, and ſure Liberty cannot be far off."

The following is a copy of a letter directed to John Durand, Eſq; and the ſame to Anthony Bacon, Eſq; ſigned by 32 of the electors of Ayleſbury.

SIR,

Fully perſuaded that the clemency of the beſt of Princes will, if neceſſary, be at length exerted in favour of Mr. Wilkes, we hope that ſhould an attempt be made to deprive him of his ſeat in Parliament, you will, from your connection with us, who are ſincere in your friendſhip for him, preſer lenity, and, from regard to the public, juſtice to his conſtituents, before rigour and ſeverity, and uſe your utmoſt endeavours to prevent the ſucceſs of ſuch a meaſure.

Ayleſbury, April 30, 1768. We are, SIR, Your moſt humble ſervants, &c.

The diſpoſitions of the Clergy of Spain are ſo changed, that the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of that Kingdom, during the laſt lent, preached againſt the dogma of probability, and againſt all the Ultramontane principles; and after the example of the firſt order of Clergy, the Eccleſiaſticks of the ſecond degree, it ſeems, have redoubled their zeal in crying down the pernitious morals of the Jeſuits.

The Bruſſels Gazette of the 21ſt ult. has the following article: "London, April 12. Mr. Wilkes is returned from Bath, and confers often with his partiſans and friends. It is remarkable, that whenever it is agitated in C——l whether the penalties incurred by his outlawry ſhould be inflicted, one of his moſt inveterate enemies ſhews the greateſt oppoſition to ſo rigorous a proceeding. If on the one hand, Mr. Wilkes is the idol of the people of England, he is, on the other, the object of the moſt animated hatred in Scotland." As a proof of which, the writer of the above Gazette gives the account of Mr. Wilkes's having been burnt in effigy at Edinburgh.

On Saturday a great body of Sailors marched over London Bridge to the King's-Bench priſon, and called out to Mr. Wilkes, who appeared at the window of his apartment, and after aſking him how he fared, gave him three cheers, and departed peaceably.

It is ſaid, that a plan has been propoſed to entirely take the duty off the beer, and lay what is adequate to government, ſolely upon the malt; by which means the government will reap a conſiderable advantage by the mode of collecting it, and the poor labouring man will only pay in proportion to the richeſt man in the county where he reſides.

It is ſaid a tax will be propoſed in the approaching parliament of ten per cent. on all legacies, and twenty per cent. on all eſtates deviſed by will in prejudice of the heirs at law. This, with other taxes which a patriotic Miniſtry intend to lay upon luxury, will enable government to take off the duty upon ſeveral neceſſaries of life, particularly thoſe upon ſoap and candles, which are ſo oppreſſive to our poor, and ſo deſtructive to our manufactures.

Yeſterday orders were given for a Detachment of the three Regiments of Foot-guards to march early this morning to Wimbledon Common, on account of the Regiments of Light Horſe, that are to be reviewed there by his Majeſty, to prevent any obſtructions from the populace, or any accident that may happen.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor iſſued out his precepts to the City Marſhal, all the Beadles and Conſtables in the City to be in readineſs, in caſe any Diſturbances ſhould happen.

According to Letters from Genoa, ſeveral merchant ſhips are at preſent fitting out by the Corſicans, to be ſent to trade to the Ports of London, Hamburgh, and Amſterdam.

The King of Spain has ſent an order to his Miniſter at Rome, to declare to the Pope, that it was his Majeſty's deſire he ſhould not proceed to the nomination of a Nuncio for his Court, till ſuch time as the differences between his holineſs and the Duke of Parma were entirely accommodated.

The Baron de Bretuil, Ambaſſador from France to the States General, having obtained permiſſion to make a journey to England, took leave of the French King at Verſailles on the 30th ult.

They write from Paris, that the Court had ſent orders to Breſt and Rochfort, for ſeparate ſquadrons to be fitted out in both theſe ports, the intention of which remained a ſecret.

It is ſaid that a Lazeretto will be built this ſummer in the Iſle of Wight, a ſum of money having been ſome time ago granted by Parliament for that purpoſe.

On Saturday evening two large bodies of Sailors marched over Black-Friars Bridge; the firſt party knocked down the Toll-Collectors, and every one elſe they met on the Bridge; but the ſecond went over very peaceably.

On Saturday night a great number of Ship-carpenters, Weavers, and other labouring mechanics, aſſembled in great numbers, at different parts of the town, &c. complaining of extravagant price of Proviſions, and the low price of Labour, and continued ſo moſt part of the night and yeſterday, and we hear they intend to preſent a petition or more, ſome day this week to an auguſt aſſembly.

It is ſaid that orders are given for two parties of the guards to be in readineſs in the Tower, to march to Wapping and Rotherhithe, to quell any diſturbances which may happen by the Sailors and Coalheavers.

MAY 10. This day both Houſes of Parliament will meet purſuant to order, when the ſame will be opened by a Royal Commiſſion.

The report current that the opening the new parliament by commiſſion was uncommon, may be contradicted by the proceedings of the laſt parliament of King George II. His Majeſty having diſſolved the former parliament by proclamation, iſſued his writ of ſummons to call a new parliament, to meet and ſit May 31, 1754, on which day the Duke of Marlborough, being Lord Steward, did himſelf in perſon adminiſter the oaths appointed, to ſeveral of the members who appeared, and afterwards gave a commiſſion, or deputation, under his hand and ſeal, empowering ſeveral of the members who had been ſworn, or any one of them to adminiſter the ſaid oaths to the reſt of the members returned, ſome of which commiſſioners adminiſtred the ſame accordingly. The Houſe was reſolved not to proceed on any return, or receive any petitions, complaining of any undue election or return of any member to ſerve in parliament, during that ſeſſion. The Royal aſſent was given to a Naturalization bill, which was the only act paſſed, and the parliament was prorogued to the 8th of Auguſt, and continued by prorogations till November, when it fat for the diſpatch of buſineſs.

The circumſtance of Mr. Wilkes's appearance at the Bar of the King's-Bench on the firſt day of Term, without any recognition on the part of the Court, or Attorney-General, having been the ſubject of much converſation, we think a Lady's account of his then ſituation not improper, who, in a mixed company, ſaid, "Mr. Wilkes was then like a man ſent to Coventry, who expreſſes at the end of the room, a deſire of returning to the table, but is told, he muſt wait 'till the Toaſt-maſter calls him up."

We hear from Cadiz, that an order has been iſſued, for raiſing the duty on exported piaſtres from three to four per cent.

On Saturday evening a Colonel's Guard marched from St. James's Park to the King's-Bench, and yeſterday morning they were relieved by another party from the ſaid place, but nothing material happened in the courſe of that time.

The mob in St. George's-fields on Sunday were rather more numerous and noiſy than in the week days, but attempted nothing, ſo that the guard that is kept there did nothing more than ſhew themſelves ready. One of their amuſements was carrying a boot about upon a poll, and pelting it, and they at laſt ſtuck it up before Mr. Wilkes's window, but that Gentleman very prudently and politely retired from the window on their approach, and never appeared till they ſtruck their ſtandard and went off.

Yeſterday morning Rear Admiral Palliſer ſet out for Portſmouth, to proceed for his ſtation at Newfoundland.

Yeſterday morning ſome Sailors began to untigg the ſhips that were got down as far as Blackwall, ſince Saturday, and dragged the men into their boats, whom they carried off with them. They have ſtuck up bills all along the water-ſide, to inform every body that they will not work 'till their wages are raiſed.

A very numerous body of Sailors have, for three days paſt, detained all outward bound ſhips now laying in the river Thames, and yeſterday morning aſſembled to the amount of many thouſands in Stepney-fields; where certain articles relating to an increaſe of wages, and a petition intended to be preſented to Parliament were read; after which a numerous party of them paraded to the Royal Exchange, and joined in repeated huzzas; but on remonſtrances from a Gentleman there preſent to one of their Chieftains, they were immediately drawn off; and a Deputation appointed to attend ſome merchants aſſembled at the King's Arms tavern in Cornhill, that their Complaints might be taken into conſideration.

Yeſterday a great number of Watermen aſſembled, and ſtopped all boats plying on the river Thames, declaring that the preſent high prices of proviſions rendered it impoſſible for them to ſupport themſelves and families, unleſs their rates were raiſed.

There is a talk that all Turnpike Gates are to be aboliſhed, and a ſmall aſſeſſment made upon the land. The roads to be under the direction of the Lord Lieutenant of each County, and ſub-divided into departments: Each County to have the beſt Methematicians that can be had as Surveyors, and an emulation will be encouraged which County ſhall in future have the beſt roads.

MAY 11. Monday night a grand Privy Council was held at the Cockpit Whitehall; and yeſterday morning another was held at the Earl of Shelburne's houſe in Berkley-ſquare, at both of which moſt of the great Officers of State aſſiſted.

Yeſterday morning an expreſs was ſent off from Earl Weymouth's office in Cleveland row, St. James's, to his Exellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Sir John Cuſt is again choſen Speaker of the Hon. Houſe of Commons, and will be preſented this day for approbation.

Yeſterday morning a very great mob aſſembled about the King's-Bench Priſon, and demanded Mr. Wilkes, in order to convey him to the Parliament-houſe; upon which a great riot enſuing, the Juſtices ordered the riot-act to be read; and many ſtones and brickbats being thrown whilſt it was reading, the ſoldiers on duty received orders to fire, in conſequence of which, a young man, the ſon of Mr. Allen, Maſter of the Horſe-ſhoe Inn, in Blackman-ſtreet, was killed.

The ſame Morning ſeveral of the populace were taken into cuſtody of the Peace Officers, but were afterwards reſcued, in doing which, ſeveral perſons were wounded by the bayonets, and were carried to St. Thomas's Hoſpital.

Yeſterday in the Evening the Guard was greatly augmented, and the number of the populace greatly increaſed, ſo as to cover almoſt the whole of St. George's Fields, from whence much and great miſchief is expected, the Troops keeping a conſtant march from the Priſon to the ſtones end of Blackman Street.

The Sailors went down the river yeſterday, and did a deal of damage, to many Dutch ſhips, as well as others.

Monday night's tide a number of outward bound merchant ſhips were obliged to drop down the River below Blackwall, in order to be out of reach of the rioters by taking the advantage of the next high water to proceed to the Downs.

Yeſterday a great number of coal porters aſſembled upon Tower-hill, and are determined not to work till their wages are advanced from 8d. per chaldron to 1s.

The coal-porters, who refuſe to work at the uſual prices, excluſive of the damage they have done on the river, have ſince proceeded ſo far as to ſtop coal carts in the ſtreets, take away the horſes from them, and not ſuffer the coals to be delivered.

Monday notice was given to all outlayers of the Foot-guards to repair directly to their reſpective batallions; and we hear the Colonel's guard, at the King's-Bench, was laſt night to be doubled.

Yeſterday Elliot's and Burgoyne's regiments of Light Horſe were quartered in the Borough to be in readineſs to ſuppreſs all future riots in St. George's Fields, and an additional party of the Guards, and alſo of the Horſe Grenadier Guards were added for that purpoſe.

The Yorkſhire Grey's are ordered to be upon duty along the roads about Deptford and Greenwich.

Yeſterday ſeveral Peers took the oaths and their ſeats, as cuſtomary after the election of a new Parliament.

Yeſterday orders were given by an auguſt aſſembly to the Juſtices in their ſeveral diſtricts, to be vigilant in the ſuppreſſion of all riots and tumults that may happen, and take up the offenders, that they may be dealt with according to Law.

Yeſterday ſeveral of the firſt peers of the realm, had their coaches marked with the number 45, which they went home with from the Houſe of Peers.

Sunday as a well-dreſſed man, ſaid to be a North Briton, was paſſing over St George's Fields, ſeeing a number of people aſſembled about the King's-Bench Priſon, he aſked what was the matter? and on being told they came to ſee Mr. Wilkes, he uttered ſome ſevere expreſſions againſt him, which ſo enraged the Populace, that they ſeized him, and faſtening his legs and arms with cords, dragged him ſeveral times through a pond; after which they obliged him to kneel down, and aſk pardon, and cry out Wilkes and Liberty; which being complied with, he was permitted to depart.

Monday a large mob gathered about the Manſion-houſe, complaining of the high price of proviſions, &c. and broke ſeveral of the lamps and windows before they diſperſed.

MAY 14. Lord Halliſax is building a very elegant Caſtle near his Stanſted Seat in Suſſex, for the ſake of proſpect, and 'tis generally thought there is not a more eligible ſpot for ſuch a purpoſe in England.

The ſame Nobleman has given orders to employ all the poor within the above neighbourhood in mending the roads, and 'tis reckoned that no leſs than 500 people are at preſent employed on that work.

Lord Weymouth one of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, will we hear be ſhortly advanced to an Earldom.

The thinking and unprejudiced part of the world are of opinion, that it was very imprudent to order out any party from the third regiment on ſuch an occaſion as that in St. George's Fields; becauſe the major part of this regiment, officers as well as private men, conſiſts of Scotchmen, in whom it might very reaſonably be ſuppoſed, the ſeeds of reſentment, reſpecting Mr. Wilkes and his oppoſition to the Scots, were ſtill remaining, and ready, the firſt opportunity, to vegetate into action.

We are affured, that upwards of 400 Members have already taken the oaths and their ſeats in the Houſe of Commons.

The Cumberland Election is upon a moderate eſtimate ſuppoſed to have coſt 250,000*l.*

Mr. Wilkes, we hear, is conſtantly attended by large parties of his friends at the King's-Bench, who never viſit him without preſents of the choiceſt wines, and the principal delicacies of the ſeaſon.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) Auguſt 3.

By capt. Petty from New-Providence we have advice, that on or about the firſt of June laſt, a brigantine pirate put into Harbour-Iſland, one of the Bahama's, of which veſſel one capt. King, who came from Harbour-Iſland to New-Providence, gave the following account: That ſhe was a Spaniſh guarda-coſta, of 16 guns, belonging to Cuba, and from thence was brought off by the captain and crew: that ſhe was taken in a brigantine by the ſaid veſſel near St. Chriſtopher's, and was kept on board her in irons four months: that ſhe had taken two other Engliſh veſſels, the maſters of which were uſed in the ſame manner by the Spaniſh captain: that after he had put the people aſhore on a deſolate iſland, he carried the veſſels into ſome part of Hiſpaniola, where he ſold them and their cargoes, and took in a load of ſugar: that intending to proceed to ſome Engliſh port, he took one capt. Knox out of gaol, paying the debts for which he was confined, to whom he diſcovered his intended voyage, and made him great offers if he would go with him to Harbour-Iſland, and from thence take paſſage to New-Providence, and procure him Engliſh papers: that Knox immediately accepted his propoſals, and after their arrival he went directly to New-Providence, where he applied to Mr. Gardiner, a merchant, to aſſiſt him in getting a regiſter, who told him if he would bring the veſſel to that port he would endeavour to procure one for him; but this he ſaid he could by no means do, and went back in the evening to the veſſel, which ſailed next morning, putting aſhore their three priſoners: that during their ſtay they kept their guns in the hold; and that he (Capt. King) had frequent opportunities of diſcourſing with Knox whilſt priſoner on board the brigantine, and that he told him the maſter and crew were pirates, but he paid no regard to what he ſaid. On Captain King's arrival at New-Providence, his honour Lieutenant Governor Gambier ordered cloathing and lodging to be provided for him, and a few days after procured him a paſſage to Philadelphia, whither Knox ſaid the brigantine was bound. A Spaniſh ſloop arrived at New-Providence ſoon after from the Havana, the maſter of which, on having a deſcription of the Spaniſh Captain and the veſſel, confirmed what Capt. King had before related, that ſhe was a guarda-coſta belonging to Cuba, and added, that ſhe had been miſſing for about five months.

We hear a treaty of peace is on foot between the Creek, Choctaw and Chickeſaw Indians.

CHARLES-TOWN, AUGUST 16.

LAST Friday Mr. Iſaac Waldron, late one of our Pilots, arrived here in his Pilot-Boat from Cape-Fear, who informs us, that a few Days before he left Brunſwick, an Expreſs arrived there from Orange County in that Province, which brought an Account of about 300 of the back inhabitants having aſſembled together, and came down to the Town of Saliſbury, in order to reſcue a few notorious horſe-ſtealers, &c. who were committed to Goal there; that in open Violation of the Laws, they broke open the ſaid Goal, and took thoſe Criminals out, after which they ſet Fire to it, which in a ſhort Time was entirely conſumed to Aſhes; and then marched off in Triumph with their reſcued Friends, not meeting with any Interruption all the while, as the People were not able to oppoſe them.——It is imagined Governor Tryon will call the Council upon this Occaſion, and ſuch Methods will be taken, it is hoped, as will ſoon put a ſtop to the Outrages committed by theſe lawleſs People.

On the 23d ult. the Brig Gambia, John Keaſt, Maſter, arrived at Tybee in Georgia, with Negroes from the Coaſt of Africa, but being infected with the Small-Pox, his Excellency Governor Wright iſſued a Proclamation for having her, with all on board, carried and moored in Tybee Creek, and to remain there at leaſt Forty Days after the laſt Perſon infected ſhall have recovered; alſo preſcribing Methods how to ſupply the People with Proviſions, Neceſſaries, &c. and preventing any Intercourſe with them, with other Regulations for preventing the ſpreading of that fatal Diſtemper.

We learn from New Providence, that Mr. Hunt of Bermuda, is appointed Collector of the Cuſtoms for the Bahamas, and not Mr. Edwards Davis, as lately mentioned, and that Mr. Hunt was arrived at Barbados from England, in his Way to New-Providence:—That his Excellency Thomas Shirley, Eſq; their new Governor, with his Lady, &c. was hourly expected there from England:—That the Detachment of the Ninth Regiment, was embarked for St. Auguſtine, under Lieutenant Stapleton; and that they expected Troops from England to Replace thoſe that had been drawn off from thence.

Letters from Eaſt-Florida, of the 4th Inſtant, mention, That General Gage had ordered Fifteen Companies of Soldiers from Weſt-Florida to St. Auguſtine, where they were daily expected, and that Barracks were preparing for them with all Expedition.

For the inſpection of the CURIOUS, there is now firſt imported into this province, one of Mr. Benjamin Martin's ROYAL PATENT PUMPS, which excluſive of its much ſuperior effect produced by a continual ſtream, has alſo a property above all others of working without friction, therefore not ſubject to wear, nor choak, which the common ones are conſtantly liable to, and the fatal conſequences in ſhips too well known. On examination they will be found to be extremely uſeful to this province, particularly for the draining of ſwamps, and filling the indico vats, as the laſt requires the utmoſt expedition, they have already been fixed to ſhips, agreeable to the approbation of ſome reſpectable gentlemen in the Jamaica trade, and many of them have been ſent to different parts of Europe for that purpoſe.—To be ſeen as above, where orders for them will be tranſmitted to the manufactory in London.—N. B. To imitate them is actionable.

THOSE indebted to the FUND of the WILL-TOWN CONGREGATION, by bond or note, are deſired to take notice for the laſt time, that if they do not pay the intereſt due on their bonds and notes, by the firſt day of September next to the ſubſcriber, they will be put into the hands of an attorney, and ſued for without diſtinction.
